Mayville Shooting Incident

At 7:24 PM on Wednesday, September 16, 2020, the Dodge County Sheriff's Office received a 911 call of a shooting incident that occurred at 1118 Horicon Street in the City of Mayville. Law enforcement, fire and EMS responded to the scene and found four patients. Lifesaving measures were performed and all four individuals were transported by air to local trauma centers.

Law enforcement has secured the scene and there is currently no threat to the public as all involved individuals are accounted for.

Currently Horicon Street from Clark Street to County TW is closed and will remain closed while an investigation takes place.

There will be no further information available until sometime during the day on Thursday, September 17. All future releases will come from the Mayville Police Department as they are the lead agency on this investigation.
